Charter of mutual commitment

The AGORAé, which is an area of exchange and solidarity, is managed by volunteers and volunteers in civic service. Its based on peer solidarity, social diversity, respect and tolerance. Its daily functioning depends on the commitment of everyone.

The AGORAé team is committed to :

- Providing students who benefit from the AGORAé a varied, quality food aid, for a provided defined period by the attribution committee;
- Being available, polite, kind, respectful and not bear any of values judgment as well as to respect beneficiaries confidentiality and anonymity;
- Implementing free or low costs activities in priority for the beneficiaries and this, with the objective of that they benefit of leisure time and cultural visits.

And vice versa, I undertake to :

- Respect the places and the people for the good of all;
- Participate in the smooth functioning of the grocery store considering the needs of the other beneficiaries for the products the most request and respecting the opening hours that are communicated to me;
- Taking part in AGORAé life at least one a quarter, fostering exchanges, discussions, dialogues and friendliness. This participation takes a free form either in coming at the organized activities (cooking lesson, workshops, ...) or in helping at the smooth functioning of the AGORAé (development of projects, delivery of products, ...).
